Molly's Cove marsh represents a small section of a great natural resource enjoyed by Mattapoisett. The coastal marsh is a giant sponge of living vegetation that is the nursery for so much of the marine life in our coastal waters. As the tide rises and falls and the sun warms and the night cools, the marsh forms the gentle, protective environment that nurtures the growth of the marine young until it can live in the harsher coastal waters.

enters Snipatuit Pond there is a fairly recently installed fish ladder to enable the alewives to climb up to their spawning ground in that pond. As you can see, unless they grow legs they will never make it. The fresh water version of the marsh, the bog has formed a sponge-like barrier almost completely blocking the bed of the river.

Mr. William Watling, member of the Tri-Town River Committee, met with Selectmen William Hubbard and John DeCosta (Chairman Bernard Talty was absent on Tuesday because of business) to discuss correcting the blockage of this section of the river.

Mr. Watling told the Selectmen that he had met with the Rochester Selectmen to talk about dredging the river from this point north and had run into a little snag. Selectman Underhill had informed the committee that any expenditure over $2000 must be put out to bid. Rochester did vote the sum of $3612 to be spent on the dredging. Mr. Watling asked what sum would be available from Mattapoisett to be used in the dredging project. Selectman Hubbard replied that the sum in the tri-town account was not immediately available but that the Board would inform Rochester as soon as possible. Mr. Watling asked if Mattapoisett would be willing to allow Rochester to do the advertising for bids with Mattapoisett to be present for the bid openings and Mr. Hubbard said, "Rochester should handle the whole thing." LETTERS RECEIVED:

Selectmen received a copy of a letter to SEMASS dated October 4, 1989 from the Board of Health. In this letter the Board of Health noted that Mattapoisett is being charged an additional sum for acid gas scrubbers and stated their position that this charge does not conform to the agreement with the town. The Board of Health states: "It would be our position that the additional cost for the scrubbers is either a technical matter that SEMASS should have been aware of and when we entered into the agreement it should have been computed in the original charges or with an additional condition put on by DEQE after we entered into the agreement, and it would be our position then that under Proposition 2½ we should be able to recover from the state."

RECEIVED A COPY OF A LETTER dated October 1, 1989 from Edgar H. Batcheller of Mattapoisett Neck Road to Police Chief James Moran. Mr. Batcheller commended the department on the prompt response to his telephone request for assistance on Thursday, September 28th.

RECEIVED A LETTER from the Brant Beach Improvement Association in which Paul E. Osenkowski, President, and Diane H. Perry, Chairperson BBIA Sub-Committee, stated that their primary concerns with the 200 lot subdivision of the Keller Company are:

1) Protection of our rights to a good, clean water supply.

2) Mitigation of increased traffic hazards on the already dangerous S-curve of upper Brandt Island Road.

3) Specification of plans for the main entrance to the project.

4) Protection of the area beaches, shellfish and finfish.

The letter reads (in part);

"The first concern listed above is our most immediate. The potential for significant negative impact to the quantity and quality of area well water, related to golf course water usage, has been stated clearly by several sources. These include (among others) conclusions that were made by the Keller Company's own geohydrologists in their DIER, and statements made by Dr. Sat D. Khanna (Consultant Hydrologist and Hydraulic Engineer) in his review of the same DEIR. In light of all this the BBIA has taken the position that it is the responsibility of the Keller Company to mitigate this situation by paying for the extension of the town water line down to the end of Brant Beach Avenue, and possibly to the end of Ocean View Avenue. The exact extent of this request will be determined by the results of further testing and studies. "We also want to clear up a popular misconception in town. The Keller Company has not provided any gifts to the town of Mattapoisett. The money that has been exchanged or promised to date, large as it may seem, is more accurately referred to as linkage. In other words, the Keller Company is paying for what it is getting. In all fairness to the Keller Company and the town, this should be a "no more/no less" situation.

"As stated in a previous Letter to the Editor we are in support of this project. We feel that if it is done right it can be of overall benefit to the town and Keller Company. We plan to continue our efforts to insure that it is done right."

RECEIVED A LETTER dated October 4, 1989 from Mr. Henderson Inches, Jr., seasonal resident of Ned's Point Road, regarding the proposed zoning creation of a Water Dependent Use (WBU) zone at the Planning Board meeting of September 20th. The letter states, in part:

"At the meeting it was clearly stated by residents of Ned's Point Road and Cannonville that they acknowledge and accept the presence of the Boatyard as a nonconforming use. Residents of Ned's Point Road and Cannonville object to the proposed change which will eliminate the Boatyard's nonconforming use and thereby permit the yard to expand without regard for the impact on the surrounding neighborhood. The fact that the Conservation Commission refused to issue an order of conditions for the proposed expansion of the Boatyard because of the lack of Board of Appeals approval strongly suggests that the purpose of the proposed amendment is to eliminate the need for a Board of Appeals review.

"As you known, Ned's Point Road is a narrow two lane road without sidewalks. The current boatyard operation has a strong impact on traffic and congestion to say nothing of windsurfing at Ned's Point. There is insufficient space on Ned's Point Road to handle parking at the Boatyard, local traffic and the traffic to and from the Park at Ned's Point. The additional complications of a Marina are obvious and the residents in the R-30 area strongly object to any change in the existing Boatyard status."

RECEIVED A LETTER dated October 3, 1989 from Roger and Jane Cheevers regarding the proposed zoning change for the Mattapoisett Boatyard. This letter opposes the change on the grounds that it would add to capacity of the boatyard creating further traffic and possible increases in pollution to the harbor.

Informational Meeting, Pt. Connett

CLUSTER RESIDENCE PROPOSED

Attorney Elizabeth Kunz, representing owners Giles and Gail Dunn, opened an informational meeting at the Town Hall Conference Room on Wednesday, October 11th. She explained that the meeting was purely an informal, informational meeting with invited representatives of Mattapoisett boards and interested people of the town to outline a proposal to develop a plot of land located adjacent to Angelica Avenue and sloping down to the pond on a large parcel that once was part of the old Dunn Farm at Point Connett. She introduced Mark Carney who is a partner of Giles Dunn, Claude McGill, builder, and Bruce Waite representing a Raynham engineering firm.

Attorney Kunz said that it was agreed that the cluster zoning concept seemed to be the best way to proceed to utilize this development but that the proposed Cluster Zoning By-Law has not yet been adopted. She said that a Special Permit will be sought with the understanding that the requirement of the Cluster Zone By-Law, as proposed, will be followed. She said that the cluster concept was favored to keep the land in as much of the original state as possible and that the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Dunn, would donate the shores of the abutting pond for conservation purposes.

Mr. Carney, in explaining the lay-out, said that everything was very preliminary in nature purposely to allow and seek the maximum feedback before making any formal plan. He said, "This is basically a virgin site" and described it as a humpback sloping from the road down the hill to the pond. He explained that the concept is modeled after a Falmouth development in Waquoit which was designed to be sensitive to the land. The sites interlock, but, not in rectangular grid fashion of a sub-division. Each site has an area for building, garden, etc. and the rest is to remain in its natural state. Each owner would be given the right to pass over the entire site via walking paths, etc. with lot lines not very important. The entire total site would be very natural with as few trees removed as possible. Some trees would be limbed to provide views while maintaining privacy. Views of the pond would be made in a controlled way and access to the beach via a boardwalk over the marsh would be sought from local Boards. Mr. Carney said that the wetland line has already been flagged and is under the consideration of the Mattapoisett Conservation Commission. He said that 16 building sites are planned; patterned to allow view and maintain privacy. No lawns are planned but with natural grass and natural trees left. Rather than paved roads, hard packed, winding driveway type roads would give access to the homes. A tennis court and possibly a softball diamond might be located in the large field adjacent to Angelica Avenue and a common sewage system may be located in this field.

Mr. Bruce Waite said that his firm estimates 6000 to 8000 gallons a day of effluent would constitute the waste and that 12 test holes have been dug in the field and that a suitable leaching site has been found near Angelica Avenue. Mr. Waite said that each of the 16 homes would have a septic tank all piped to a common leaching field. An overflow chamber would take care of a 2 or 3 day accumulation in case of power outage. A generator would take over in case of a long power outage. He said that 110 gallons per day is a universal factor used for each bedroom.

The elevation of Angelica Avenue is 30 feet. The pond is 10 to 15 feet above sea level. According to Mr. Waite, the flood plain has been established so that development would not be accomplished in any elevation under 15 feet above sea level.

The developers will be conducting a tour of the property on Saturday, November 4th, to which any Point Connett resident is invited.

AMY HENDRICKS TO SPEAK

Amy Hendricks will speak at the Old Rochester Regional High School Library on October 23rd at 7:30 p.m. Amy's presentation will be on the building of parent-professional partnerships. Often parents find it difficult to be active and involved in their children's education. It can be hard to find the right language, to know who to seek out and to be confident about the value of parental input. The presentation is open to the public and is free of charge.

Amy Hendricks, RN, MS, is Coordinator of Health Services for the Greater Waltham Area ARC. She provides consultation, education and support to disabled individuals, families and staff. Amy's background includes working on a developmental evaluation team, leading a variety of groups (sibling, parent, adolescent socializiation, life skills, etc.) as well as counseling around at the epidemic from a local perspective. The speaker will explore how the HIV virus (which can cause AIDS) affects the body, how it is transmitted, availability of treatment, and prevention strategies. A question and answer session will follow. Refreshments will be available following the discussion.

Awareness Hour: Co-Dependency

"Co-dependency" will be the topic at the third in a series of awareness hours sponsored by the Marion Center Associates Foundation, to be held on Saturday, October 28th, from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon at Saint Gabriel's Parish Hall in Marion.

What is co-dependency? "Anyone whose own life is overly determined on a day-to-day basis by other people's actions -- anyone who is overly involved in controlling other peoples' behavior -- anyone who spends most of their time reacting instead of acting -- may be 'co-dependent'", explains Ms. Barbara Pacheco, LICSW. Ms. Pacheco is a social worker at Saint Luke's Hospital, is in private practice at the Marion Center Associates, and will be moderating the co-dependency awareness hour.

Ms. Pacheco adds that "co-dependency is what happens in families where there experiences and information is often a helpful part of the recovery process."

The next six-week session of "Cardiac Connections" begins on Wednesday, October 25th, and runs through November 29th. The group meets in the Cardiac Rehab Department from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Wednesday evenings. To register for the cardiac support group contact the Rehabilitation Department at 295-0880, ext. 361 or 368. A nominal fee is charged for materials.

is alcoholism, substance abuse, or other dysfunctions and problems. People become entangled and enmeshed and need to recover their own independence."

The awareness hour will feature a film entitled "Co-dependency Update", narrated by Sharon Wegscheider-Cruse. The film explores the co-dependent feelings, behaviors and attitudes taken on by family members of chemically dependent people. The film offers alternatives to these learned patterns and encourages change through treatment, self-help and other forms of support. The film will be followed by a question-and-answer session and a discussion.

"This awareness hour is for anyone from a family where there is alcoholism, chemical dependence or any other dysfunction", comments Ms. Pacheco. "It's an opportunity to learn a little more about these issues in an informal atmosphere, to ask some questions and to get some support."

The event is free of charge, although donations will be welcome. Proceeds go to the Marion Center Associates Foundation to support the awareness hours.

Albert Pinkham Ryder was born in New Bedford in 1847. In his early twenties he moved to New York City.

His early youth spent in and around a major port and its surrounding countryside undoubtedly influenced his paintings, particularly the moonlight marines for which he is so famous.

Ryder received very modest recognition during his lifetime. Now he is considered one of the most influential and important American artists of the late 19th and early 20th centuries.

Professor Homer, Chairman of the Department of Art History at the University of Delaware, has written, in conjunction with the late Lloyd Goodrich, the first fully-illustrated, comprehensive study of this talented and complex person.

Members are free; non-members, $5.00.

Council for Children

On October 27th at Lakeville Regional Hospital from 9:00 to 12:00 noon the Region V Councils for Children will hold an equity conference entitled "Planning for the Changing Needs of the Children in Southeastern Massachusetts". This conference is hosted by the Chairperson of the Region V Councils for Children.

The conference is the result of a needs assessment substantiating the commonly held perception of the southeast region as a "resource poor and underserviced area". Data showed that for all children, Region V received only 12.4% of the total state allocation. This figure was compared to the sociodemographic data that shows the southeast region as having approximately 20% of the child population and a disproportionate high degree of negative social indicators such as poverty rate, teen pregnancy, abuse and neglect, homelessness, etc.

It is the intent of the Councils for Children to present a panel format offering

Wampanoag Singing

EVENING OF NATIVE SONG

Three Native Americans will sing in Wampanoag tradition in a rare performance at the Plimoth Plantation on Friday, October 20th, at 6:30 p.m.

The three, all staff members at the Plimoth Plantation, will treat listeners to an evening of songs in true Wampanoag style, which were created and performed as a means of not only entertainment, but education. Songs such as "The Friendship Song", "The Rabbit Dance", and the "Mosquito Dance" were the type that helped form and shape the rich Wampanoag culture.

More like musical stories, the songs sing of the lives the Wampanoag lived, and the lessons they took from nature and animals living around them.

role. Thanks to a new program at Tobey Hospital, area parents have another resource they can turn to.

Tobey's Postpartum Program, funded by a private grant, offers information and home visits for all new mothers who deliver their infants at the hospital. Pediatric nurse practitioner Marty Canham, RN, and Sue Briere, RN, a nurse on the hospital's maternity unit, call each mother about 10 days after discharge. They ask about the physical condition of mom and baby and how well the mother is coping with the stress of caring for a newborn. They also offer a great deal of information, about infant care, postpartum care for mom, breast-feeding, or one of the hundreds of other details and questions that uncertain new mothers often have. The two nurses refer families to a number of community programs and agencies that can help during the stressful postpartum period. And if the mother feels a need, they arrange to visit the family to provide hands-on teaching and advice. The visit is at no charge to the family.

"We try to call at a time when the help has gone home, dad's vacation is probably over and mom is on her own," said Ms. Briere.

The program is designed to augment the postpartum teaching that takes place when mother and baby are on Tobey's Maternity Unit. "Most women go home within 48 hours of birth", said Rosemary Lackie, CRN, clinical nurse manager of Obstetrics. "We do teach basic infant care at the hospital, but mothers cannot possibly receive all of the instruction they need in such a short period of time." Those who are breastfeeding often don't begin lactation until after discharge, and they frequently have questions and concerns about feeding their infants, Mrs. Lackie noted. And physical problems in the infant may not be evident until after a few days at home.

Lydia Faesy, RN, a former obstetric nurse at Tobey, and Betsey Dunn, RN, a pediatric nurse practitioner in the Wareham School system, organized the postpartum program. Pediatric Nurse Practitioner Canham developed the detailed interview form that she and Ms. Brier follow to insure that mom and baby are progressing as they should.

The several dozen moms who have been reached thus far have all expressed gratitude for the postpartum program. The nurses are collecting data from the program which will be used to augment postpartum teaching at the hospital.

A rare Mt. Washington amberina compote circa 1887, an 1870 Baccarat paperweight, a "Lava" glass kerosene lamp, a fine Dublin silver ladle, circa 1795, and a wrought pewter "Cymric" box will be among the fine antiques offered for sale at the fourth annual "Director's Choice" benefit sale exhibition at The New Bedford Glass Museum November 4 through 19.

A preview party is scheduled for Saturday evening, November 4, from six until nine o'clock. Tickets, at $10. per person, are available through the Museum.

This year's show will feature over 100 items selected from the stock of twelve dealers in the U.S. and Canada. Works are chosen by the Museum's curatorial staff for quality, rarity, condition, and authenticity, and include glass, silver, porcelain, furniture, painting, and ethnographic artifacts.

Commenting on the success of past "Director's Choice" shows, Museum Director Janie Chester Young remarked, "This area of Boston that was destroyed in the great fire of 1872: streets such as Summer had originally housed some of Boston's most prestigious residences; during Civil War times, the area turned commercial and became the center of New England's wool, shoe, leather, and dry goods districts. Then, one November weekend in 1872, it all went up in flames. Quickly rebuilt, the area became known for its sturdy and imposing Victorian structures, described as "the new palaces of Boston's merchants".

Join us as we view this area, still the heart of Boston's business district. Meet guides Harry Friedman and Connie McMillin front of One Winthrop Square (near Washington Station MBTA stop on the Red and Orange lines). The tour will proceed rain or shine, reservations are not required, and admission is $6.00, members $3.00. For further information and a free schedule of BBF tours call 617-367-2345.

Easter Seals

For the sixth year in a row the Massachusetts Easter Seal Society, Burger King Restaurants and FOX Television Channel 25 have teamed up to offer safe Halloween treats. "They're tamper-proof for a Safe Halloween", according to National Safe Halloween Spokesman Vincent Price.

Coupon books worth $7.75 are on sale for $1.00 at participating Burger King Restaurants during the month of October. The dollar goes to Easter Seals. Coupons can be redeemed between November 1 and 30 for ten orders of small French fries.

"By giving Safe Halloween coupon books as treats you pay once, but give twice", says Vincent Price. "You give a child a safe Halloween treat. You give Easter Seals money to fund services for people with disabilities."

Last year $75,000.00 from Safe Halloween treat books went to the Massachusetts Easter Seal Society.

PSAT TO BE GIVEN AT OLD COLONY

The Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test will be given at Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School on Tuesday, October 24th.

The PSATs are given to juniors who are interested in pursuing a college education upon graduation from Old Colony. Each year at least 20% of the school's graduates continue their education at the post-secondary level. Last June's graduates are attending schools such as Bridgewater, Salem State, Southeastern Massachusetts University, Wentworth Institute as well as numerous community colleges.

The PSATs provide the participants with an opportunity to experience a test battery similar in design to the SAT exams which are a requirement for entrance into most colleges and universities.

Additional information about the PSATs can be received by calling the guidance office at Old Colony at 763-8011, est. 26.

SENIOR NEWSLETTER

The Guidance Department at Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School has issued the first of a series of Senior Newsletters. The Newsletters are designed to keep Seniors and their parents informed of important dates, events, and policies which will be in effect during the school year. In addition, the Newsletter will be used to make parents aware of the various services available through the Guidance Department at Old Colony.

The first Newsletter was mailed to parents on September 27th. Among the subjects addressed in it are the Cooperative Education program and information for College-bound students. Included in the mailing are the recently revised guidelines for "Co-op" and a list of available scholarships for students intending to continue their education after graduation.

which has arranged for the dolls to make a national tour in October and November. Other cities included in this tour are New York, Washington D.C., San Francisco, and Los Angeles.

The doll exchange was organized in 1927 by Dr. Sidney Lewis Gulick, a missionary in Japan for 25 years. When failing health forced his return to the U.S. he became concerned about the worsening relations between the two countries. Remembering the love and respect for dolls he had observed in Japanese children, Dr. Gulick thought dolls would make excellent messengers of friendship to Japan. Through the Committee for World Friendship Among Children, Dr. Gulick orchestrated the collection of dolls from children in America to be sent to children in Japan. More than 2,600,000 Americans participated and 12,700 dolls were sent to Japan. Each carried a passport saying "May the United States of America and Japan always stay friends. I am being sent to Japan on a mission of friendship. Please let me join the Girls' Festival in your country". In return, a Japanese Committee on International Friendship Among Children was formed, and 58 hand-crafted dolls from Japan were sent to museums and libraries in the U.S. The arrival of the dolls in both countries was met with ceremony and celebration.

Relations between Japan and the U.S. however continued to worsen until the outbreak of war in 1941. The military dominated Japanese government then ordered the dolls, known as the "Blue-eyed Friendship Dolls", to be destroyed. Many were burned, nearly all were destroyed to demonstrate enmity towards the U.S. Only 233 of the original 12,700 survived. These had been hidden by individuals or teachers and not discovered until long after the war. Ninety-two of the remaining 233 make up the Return Homecoming Exhibition now touring the U.S.

In 1988, 19 of the remaining 26 Japanese dolls (originally 58 were sent to the U.S.) made a return trip to their homeland in Japan. The renewed interest in the Friendship dolls led to organization of this return visit for the American dolls. It also led to new doll exchanges now being organized by Sidney Lewis Gulick III (grandson of Dr. Gulick). These Friendship dolls continue to be important symbols of goodwill between the United States and Japan even today.

In conjunction with the Return Homecoming Exhibition, Miss Kyoto, one of the 58 dolls given by the Japanese to U.S. libraries and museums (permanently housed at the Boston Children's Museum) will be exhibited at the Children's Museum in Dartmouth.

Sponsors of the Return Homecoming Exhibition include: the Japanese Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Ministry of Education, the Sogo Department Store chain, the Kokusai Bunka Kyokai, the Association for the Promotion of International Cooperation All Nippon Airways, Iwatani eye talk

Q. What should I get for my money when I have my eyes examined?

A. You should get tests to determine how well you see at far and near distances; whether or not vision problems like nearsightedness, farsightedness or astigmatism are hampering your ability to see; how well your eyes work together as a team; and how well you can change focus from near to far and vice versa.

You should also get eye health tests, including one for glaucoma, if you are over 35 or have a family history of this disease. The optometrist also can detect signs in the eyes of general health problems like high blood pressure and diabetes.

There may be other tests, depending upon the results of the basic examination.

Expect all this to take from 30 to 60 minutes and be prepared to discuss your general health history.

WEEKLY WALK - "FALL LEAVES"
WHY THEY CHANGE COLOR

Do you know why or how the leaves turn colors in the fall? Join the Lloyd Center and Alan Hankin for a walk in the beautiful fall foliage Sunday, October 29th, from 1:30 to 3:30 to learn the answer. Alan will also explain why the leaves fall and how to identify trees by the colors they turn.

To register for this free program, or any Lloyd Center program, call the Lloyd Center at 990-0505. Space is limited, so register today.

Other upcoming Lloyd Center programs include: "Dartmouth's Rivers: From the Cedar Swamp to Buzzards Bay", an art show, running from October 7 to January 15, and a Winter Waterfowl walk on November 5th.

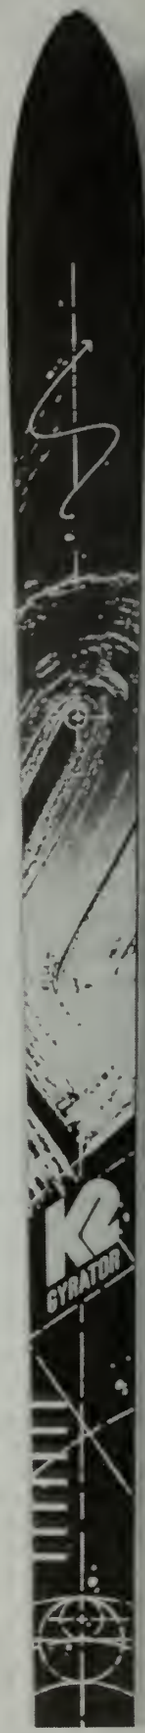
Former World Cup mogul skier Mike Hattrup



WHY K2 ENGINEERS SPENT SO MUCH TIME DESIGNING A SKI THAT'S HARDLY EVER ON THE SNOW.

No ski is going to do much for you while you're airborne. So you'd better have one that can make the most of it upon reentry.

That's what the Gyrator is all about. The look is radical and the performance is hot. It rips in the bumps, but it's more than a mogul ski. This light, hyper ski is quick and catlike all over the mountain, even on ice.

So go ahead and take off. Because every time you land, you'll appreciate the time K2 spent on the drawing board. And the fact that we carry them!
